

Happy New Year and welcome to 2009!

The next twelve months are sure to be challenging for all of us. As the impact of the global financial crisis continues, one thing is certain; with every financial crisis comes opportunity. In times like these customers look for reliable, dependable and understanding suppliers. At Haigh Australia, we believe our strong foundation and decades of experience will ensure our future growth together. My thanks to you, our customers, for your continued support and I look forward to a bright & successful future for all.
